E. L. WASHBURN & CO., Prescription Druggist.

To accommodate our customers we have the only complete line of Remedies used by Homoeopathic Physicians carried in the city. For this reason the impression exists in some quarters that we have only Homoeopathic goods. Such is not the fact. On the contrary, we have one of the largest and most complete drug stocks in the city, which is in the care of competent Pharmacists of long experience in compounding and dispensing prescriptions of all kinds.

Having no interest in the sale of patent medicines we do no counter prescribing, but do do a legitimate prescription, and physicians supply business, depending on the professional and the public desire for reliable drugs at reasonable prices for a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed on us in the past.

While extending both our Wholesale and Retail Drug Business, our Optical, Surgical and Sanitary Departments are Not Neglected. Oculists' Prescriptions and Eye Glasses requiring special Frames and Setting are made to order and carefully adjusted. Our stock of Surgical Instruments and Dressings is complete, and personal attention is given to the selection and fitting of all appliances for deformities, truss, etc. All our druggery, kerosene, and kettles are furnished fresh from our own looms, insuring a perfect fit and the best possible wear.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion.

"Sowing the Wind," under the direction of Mr. Charles Frohman, will be presented next Thursday evening. No play presented here during the present season, if not for many years past, has made such impression as "Sowing the Wind," Sydney Grundy's famous and widely-discussed "sex against sex" drama, which ran for two hundred nights last season at the Empire theater, and has on its current season's record a brilliant record of fifty nights at the Columbia theater. Sale of seats opens to-morrow.

One of the most gorgeously costumed and magnificently appointed "first-part" scenes ever provided for a minstrel performance is the spectacular palace scene, painted in delicate tints of pale blue and pink, and brilliantly illuminated by pretty effects in electricity given by George Thatcher and Carroll Johnson's minstrels, who appear next Saturday evening. Sale of seats opens to-morrow.

The modern spectacle, Palmer Cox's "Brownies," will be the attraction at the Hyperion theater during the week of March 11 and will be presented by the original New York company, numbering over one hundred people, with two carloads of scenery and all the accessories that has made the extravaganza the talk of New York, Boston, Philadelphia and New York were the only cities up to this week that had been favored with Mr. Cox's marvelous production and New Haven will be the only city visited in this state.

The sale of seats will open on Thursday morning at the box office and the Hyperion. There will be no free list. The scale of prices will be $1.

Grand Opera House.

The talented and well known actor, Frederic Bryton, will appear in "Forgiveness" this and to-morrow evenings. An exchange says: "Forgiveness" is one of the best combinations of humor and pathos in melodrama that we have. It holds an audience spellbound, and it does it with the simplest and most natural means. Many in New Haven have seen Mr. Bryton in this play and well testify to the merit of the production in Mr. Bryton's hands. The supporting company numbers some excellent artists. Mr. Bryton, who is a remarkably handsome man, carries the female portion of the audience with him, not alone by his manly bearing and picturesque costume, but by his naturalness and his intense fervor. The story of the play is told with simplicity and directness, its scenes are carried on amid such picturesque surroundings as never fail to gratefully impress the eye, and bits of comedy of a kind that invariably appeals to a popular assemblage, alternating with pathos that stirs with unflinching swiftness the emotions of the throng.

As "next at the box office" Mr. Bryton appealed to the sympathies of all. He was recalled at the end of each act, and recalled with a heartiness and spontaneity which were unmistakable.

Milton Nobles, the distinguished actor and dramatist, and a powerful company will be the attraction Wednesday and Thursday evenings, presenting Mr. Nobles' famous play, "From Sir to Son," in which he plays a doctor and a hit. There will be the usual matinee Wednesday.

The transformation scene in M. B. Leavitt's gorgeous spectacle, "Spider and Fly," which comes to the Grand Friday and Saturday evenings, is said to be a masterpiece of scenic art and stage mechanism. Matinee on Saturday.

Foli's Wonderful Theater. A great combination will appear this week, headed by that prince of comedy creators, Hughey Dougherty, the ever popular and famous minstrel. This is his first appearance here at popular prices. With him will appear Miss Ella Wesner, another star artist who makes her first appearance here at popular prices. Miss Wesner enjoyed a run of 500 nights in New York in her great character of "The Little Captain," and undoubtedly she will repeat her New York success here. Others who will appear are the Electric quartet, who made a big hit here two months ago, the Burt sisters, Matthews and Harris, Stinson and Meryn, Billy Williams, John and Harry Dillon, and the Gee brothers.

AT THE POSTOFFICE. A Daring Robbery—The Clerks Were at Dinner—A Boy Too Frightened to Give an Alarm.

During the noon hour last Saturday one of the most daring robberies which has ever taken place in this city was perpetrated at the postoffice and thereby the office lost about $900. Certain improvements have been going on in the stamping department and for some time while the workmen have been there the stamp clerks have been moved into the money order department. This double force of clerks in the one room together with the workmen going in and out, the office has had much unusual confusion of late. This was taken advantage of by the thieves and their attempts, which otherwise undoubtedly have failed, was successful.

When the robbery occurred Miss Lyons, chief clerk of the money order department, and Miss Siebke, chief clerk of the registering department, were the only persons in the room, the rest being out to dinner. On a table were two tin boxes, one containing about $900 and the other $200. The two clerks were busily engaged when a man appeared at the money order window and Miss Lyons went to see what he wanted, while Miss Siebke attended to registering a letter for the Leader's errand boy.

While the clerks were thus engaged, the boy says he saw the man at the other window make a sign to a confederate, who was walking in the corridor. This man, acting on the signal, stepped through the door leading to the stamping department and reaching into the registry department, he seized the box containing the $900, stuck it under his coat and walked out. Stamp Clerk Hayes was at the same time engaged by another confederate. As soon as the man had gone with the box the individual who had been trying to find out the location of a town from Miss Lyons took his departure. During this time the boy, who had witnessed all, was so frightened that he did not dare to say anything and the thieves escaped. The job was evidently the work of men who knew of the box which contained the large sum and which the arrangement of the office. The police are at work on the affair, but as clue as to the men's whereabouts has as yet been found.

The same men, it is thought, tried to play their game the day before, but in some way were discovered and left. Unless the money is found Postmaster Beach will have to make it good. A theory is that the men had a confederate at the depot and did not themselves take the train, but gave the plunder to the confederate, who took it away. Another theory is that the men had a team in waiting and escaped in that way.

THE WASHINGTON AUTHORITIES NOTIFIED.

Postmaster Beach was seen last night in reference to the robbery and said that he had advised the authorities at Washington of the affair and expected that government detectives would within a few days be detailed upon the case. At the present time the local detectives are at work upon the case, but it is understood have no clues upon which to work and not even a description of the trio of thieves.

The postmaster also said that in his opinion there was not much hope of the money being recovered and that so far as he knew there were no descriptions of the men but that possibly Miss Lyon and Clerk Hayes might be able to remember sufficiently the appearance of the men so as to be able to furnish some slight description. When asked whether or not he would be obliged to make good the amount stolen replied that undoubtedly the money would have to be made good, but it was discretionary with the United States authorities as to whether it must be made good or not.

Postmaster Beach was not at the post office the day of the robbery, having been confined to his home with a severe attack of the grip.
